To Prospective Purchasers of a Taylor Knox Home

This is a letter of reference for Taylor Knox, his company and the homes they build.

I purchased a Taylor Knox home in Whitlow Creek, Bishop, Georgia three years ago and live there today.

The entire experience with Taylor Knox and his company was enjoyable. I love the home we purchased. Having more than 40 years in business and having purchased other homes in my lifetime, I have the experience and knowledge to know when a home is built solid, with the best materials by craftsmen who care about their work and the finished product. Taylor Knox exceeded my expectations during our review of the home, the final prep prior to move in and, more importantly, after the deal was closed when he fixed a few little things for us promptly and without question.

I can recommend Taylor Knox and his company to anyone looking for a new home.

Should you want to speak with me about this, please call me.

Sincerely,

Lester V. Ottinger
President / CEO
